

Appreciate ongoing increase of equal access to technological and communication services. It is of great importance we Deaf consumers have choices with whom we want to hook up providing us video relay services. This would include having optimal services that allow us immediate access for emergency and safety information or services. Thank you for regulations that would benefit us Deaf consumers high quality services.